MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN OF SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—IT WILL WARMER
grow.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER IT WILL
be;
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see.
The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

THE CHORUS OF THE DAYBREAK.

I sat by the window at daybreak,
As the wild birds carolled the hour,
And watched the shades of the night time
Droop 'neath the morning's power,
And as the banners of sunrise
Flung their colors above the trees,
The burst of light charmed the bird notes
Into sweeter melodies.
The wren, the linnet and robin,
The oriole, cat bird and jay,
And all the choir of the treetops
Spiritedly sang and gay,
And with notes unknown to mortals,
With harmonies grandly fair
As the soul's unuttered music,
They piped on the morning air.
The daybreak's freshness and grandeur,
And the songs of the happy birds,
Commingled a tender beauty
That cannot be told in words,
And a gladness settled o'er me
That lifted me out of the cares
That yesterday bore upon me
In the burden of affairs.

Large numbers of the Coxeyites and Fryites and Kellyites and Galvinites, who floated and footed it past here for Washington, are now returning West over the C. and O., having been furnished transportation by the authorities of the District of Columbia. They are now satisfied of the failure of their scheme.

Around Middlesborough they are raising corn on land which sold a few years ago for $350 a front foot, and fine pasture lands roll away in green forgetfulness of the dizzy dreams of wealth they cover. Nothing in our wonderful country is more wonderful than the rise and fall of this magic city of the Cumberland Gap, whose town lots are now the home of the mild eyed kine and whose magnificent houses are the trying places of the bats.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

WE TOLD YOU SO!

We Knew the Maysvilles Could Win if They Tried.

The morning game Saturday only attracted a small crowd, but those who did go out were amply repaid by witnessing a lively contest.

The game was always in doubt, and kept everybody guessing as to where the victory would land.

Sparks, after a long rest, was in the box for the locals, and while he was touched up for twelve hits, he kept them well scattered, and was very effective at critical times.

Captain Wadsworth made a wholesale change of positions in his team, and it worked like a charm.

The locals have four errors charged up to them in the game, but Rogers' misjudgment of a long fly from Hornberger's bat was the only costly one.

Hermann, the "wizard," pitched for Cynthians, and was hit a great deal harder than the score indicates. Bruner got three hits off him and "Nervy" Nie grabbed two beauties. Sparks is also credited with two. It was his hot "tomola" to short that was too sultry for Hornberger to handle that sent in the winning run.

The locals opened the ball in the second. Nie hit to third, Curl threw low to first and "Nervy" kept on to second. Wadsworth hit to right for a base, and Nie went to third, while Wadsworth stole second. Bruner hit one down the alley past third for a single, and Nie and Wadsworth scored.

The visitors tied the score in their half. Murphy hit to center for two bases. Douglass hit over third. Hornberger's hit to Hill caught Murphy at third. Curtis hit over second for a base, and Douglass scored. Hornberger tallied on Sullivan's single to right.

Neither side got a man to counting territory until the seventh, when the locals earned a run. Bruner pushed one into right for a single, purloined second and scored on Sparks's jolt into right for a bag.

Maysvilles took on a batting rally in the eighth and scored three runs. Nie started the fusillade of hits by smashing a good one over second for a base, and stole second. Wadsworth sacrificed Nie to third. Wellner then sent a screamer past second for a single, and Nie trotted home. Hill worked a base on balls. Sparks started a hot one down to short, which Hornberger grabbed, but relinquished it immediately, and two more locals scampered home. Maysville now had four runs the best of it.

The visitors worked hard to overcome this lead, but fell short, and the two teams broke even on the series.

The following is the score:

DIAMONDLINGS.

The Washingtons defeated the Maysvilles Saturday by a score of 8 to 6. The Cynthians played at Millersburg Saturday afternoon and defeated the team at that place by a score of 9 to 4.

Wellner will pitch the game against the Shamrocks tomorrow. He is confident he can keep them guessing. Wellner held the Cincinnati Reds down to ten hits in a game at Hamilton, O., last month.

If Wellner had received anything like the support in Friday's game that was given Sparks by his field in Saturday's game, the Cynthians would have left here with two defeats instead of one.

A gentleman from the West End was so pleased with Sparks's work Saturday that he sent him a lovely bouquet. Charley is recovering rapidly, and it won't be long before he is as good as new.

With practice, which he lacked in two games which he has played here, Wellner will come around all right and prove a great acquisition to the locals. The knowing ones have a great deal of respect for his ability as a twirler.

The mighty Shamrocks, the pride of Cincinnati and the best amateur-professional team in Ohio, will be here tomorrow for one game. This will be gratifying news to a number of our baseball enthusiasts, who have been anxious to see the Shamrocks play the locals at home. Our boys are playing good ball now, and everybody that can possibly do so should be on hand tomorrow afternoon and encourage them to win. If our boys play with the vim and vigor they displayed in Saturday's game, the Shamrocks have got anything but a cinch.

The Postoffice at Gerta, Brown county, O., has been discontinued.

The Democratic Executive Committee will meet at the County Clerk's office at 11 a. m. today.

The White Collar Line will soon build the finest steamboat ever seen on the Western waters. It will be planned after the style of the Eastern floating palaces.

William T. Holmes, aged 59, a member of the Third Kentucky Infantry, died at the Soldiers' Home, Dayton, O. His remains were shipped to his widow, Mattie B. Holmes, at Danville.

The Reeves family of Greenup were given a preliminary hearing for the murder of Leander Coffee, and each of the six prisoners admitted to bail in $200. The small amount of bond required has created considerable surprise.

Sheriff John H. Catron of Knox county was taking a colored prisoner to Frankfort. The L. and N. employees required him to ride with his prisoner in the Jim Crow car. He sued the railway company for $5,000 damages, and a jury gave him $1,250. Where will this Jim Crow foolishness end, anyhow?

A car containing about seventy of Kelley's hobos went West on No. 17 yesterday morning. They left Washington Friday afternoon, traveling on second class tickets furnished by the authorities at that place. They are bound for St. Louis. Harry West, who formerly worked in the laundry in this city, was among the number.

Mr. Joseph Grimes, an old Maysville boy, who is only 36 years of age, and who is recognized as the fattest man in this country, stepped on the scales at Newport Saturday and tipped the beam at 485 pounds. Mr. Grimes has traveled all over the country with the leading shows for the past eight years and has never been equaled in his weight by any person.

Action seeking the revocation of the Pullman Palace Car Company's charter has been instituted at Chicago by the Attorney General of Illinois. A petition filed asks leave to begin quo warranto proceedings to compel the company to show why its charter should not be revoked on account of violations of its provisions. It is charged that the company has exceeded its authority by owning vast property and interests in other corporations not necessary to its legitimate business of manufacturing cars.

The Democrats of Greenup county will hold their convention Saturday, August 25th.

The earnings of the C. and O. for the first week in August were $211,909.11, an increase of $13,041.97 over the corresponding week of 1893.

Hon. W. H. Daugherty has been Superintendent of Public Schools in Bath county for twenty-nine years. He retires from office today.

Frank Costigan of Helena Precinct has been appointed a member of the Mason County Democratic Executive Committee, to succeed the late Septimus D. Clark.

Dr. A. H. Pollock and wife of Germantown celebrated the sixty-first anniversary of their marriage August 1st. He, at 84, is very sprightly. She is 78 and quite feeble.

During the past seven days there has been 251 business failures throughout the United States, against 394 the corresponding week of last year. For the five weeks ending August 1st, failures reported showed liabilities of $11,144,713, of which $5,626,594 were of manufacturing concerns and $5,230,247 of trading concerns.

The crisis has been reached in the affairs of the striking shopmen at Pullman, who, since the strike, have been permitted to remain in their homes without paying rent. Room must be made for the families of the 1,000 new employees, and the only hope left to save the strikers' families from eviction is to return to work. There is, however, only room for about 600 more men at Pullman. About 3,000 people will be effected when the evictions are begun, which will be in a few days.

Political Influence.
The young enthusiast in politics went to offer his services for the campaign to an old wheelhorse who had seen service and done it, too, before the youth was born.

"What can you do?" asked the veteran. "I can raise my voice in defense of our principles all over the state," was the proud reply.

"Um—um—yes—er—anything else?"

"I can raise party clubs everywhere."

"Um—um—yes—anything else?"

"I can raise the spirit of patriotism in every village."

"Um—yes—anything else?"

"I can raise the standard of revolt against corruption."

"Ah! Um—yes—anything else?"

The young man's enthusiasm was jarred.

"Great Caesar," he exclaimed, "isn't that enough?"

"Hardly."

"What more could you want?"

"Can you raise $10,000?" asked the veteran, in a profoundly yearning tone, and the enthusiast vanished with his enthusiasm.
